HRA Pharma Wins the Grand Prix des Entreprises de Croissance

Paris, July 4, 2014 – HRA Pharma announced today that it has been honored with the 2014 Grand Prix des Entreprises de Croissance (Corporate Growth Award) in the Grand Prix Development et Potential de Croissance (Development and Growth Potential Award) category.

The award recognizes the companies that have exhibited excellence in corporate growth over the past years. This first edition is supported among others by the French Ministry for the Economy and Finance, the MEDEF Paris, Bpifrance, France Biotech and the French Digital Council. The nominees in HRA Pharma's award category were required to have between 20 and 100M€ in revenue for 2013, the highest of the growth categories for the Pharma & Biotech Sectors.

The winners of the 2014 Corporate Growth Awards were honored and announced at last night's gala at the InterContinental Paris Le Grand. Over 100 of the leading corporate executives were in attendance.

HRA Pharma was selected based upon the company's steady and stellar corporate performance, marked by sustained annual financial growth since its founding 15 years ago. Today, HRA Pharma is an international pharmaceutical leader in women's health and endocrinology. Beyond more than a decade of continuous success, the Company's growth has accelerated in recent years as a result of expanding its international operations and broadening its products portfolio.

In accepting the award, François Vuillet, Chief Operating Officer of HRA Pharma said "This award recognizes the success of the entire HRA Pharma team. At HRA Pharma we strive to design new and intelligent health solutions and deploy enthusiasm to develop them. Thanks to our great entrepreneurial spirit we constantly go beyond what is expected and share our successes with our customers and partners. Together, we have built a company of which we are all proud, and it is very gratifying to have our efforts recognized today".
